DRANOFF PRESENTS "NEW WORLD OF CLASSICAL MUSIC"

The Dranoff continues in its 28th Season of 2 piano masters with "New World of Classical Music."

On Sunday, February 8th at 5:00 pm, Dranoff 2 Piano presents the critically acclaimed Italian pianists, the Trivella Piano Duo on Miami Beach at the New World Center, in "New World of Classical Music". The program features music encompassing 2 piano masterpieces by some of the greatest living composers from around the world, played by the masterful and sensational twin pianists, Davide and Daniele Trivella. This concert will bring together both new and well-known 2 piano works of John Adams, John Corigliano, Gabriela Lena Frank, Lowell Liebermann, Alice Ho and Giovanni Sollima.

The concert will also present works commissioned in the past by Dranoff for the Dranoff International 2 Piano Competition, Corigliano's Chiaroscuro and Frank's Seis Cantos de los Campos. The concert will present Adams's Hallelujah Junction, Liebermann's Sonata for Two Pianos, as well as a newer work in the genre, Alice Ho's Glistening Pianos. For the occasion of "New World of Classical Music", Davide and Daniele will also be performing their own 2 piano transcription of Violoncelles, vibrez!, an energetic piece by Giovanni Sollima, Italian composer and cellist who has worked extensively with maestro Yo-Yo Ma and his Silk Road Project.

"...the pianists melted into one single person. With their charm of two playful rascals, they played variations that left the audience breathless." - Rundschau, fur Wetter und Herdecke

"[The Trivellas] were bellowing lightning rods of rhythm!" - Uwe Mitsching, Reitstadel, Germany

"New World of Classical Music" will present internationally-acclaimed pianists Davide and Daniele Trivella, the Gold Prize winners of the 7th Murray Dranoff International 2 Piano Competition. Today they perform in major Classical venues and Festivals throughout Europe and the US. They now live in Bergamo, Italy, regularly performing throughout Europe while continuing to add new transcriptions of well-known works to the 2 piano repertoire.

"New World of Classical Music" takes place on Sunday, February 8th at 5:00 pm, at New World Center on 500 17th Street, Miami Beach, FL 33139. Tickets are $35 for General Admission, $50 Gallery Seating, and $5 for students. For tickets and more information, visit www.Dranoff2Piano.org or call 305-572-9900.

Dranoff International 2 Piano Foundation, Miami's Gateway to the World of Music

For 28 years, the Dranoff International 2 Piano Foundation has been the world's leading organization to champion exclusively two piano repertoire and artistry. It is the only international foundation, accredited by the World Federation of International Music Competitions, to discover, promote, and award honors to top professional duo piano artists through its competition, commissions, and presentations of duo piano concerts. The Dranoff promotes awareness to a new generation of students of the transformational power of music and the arts through its multi-disciplinary, educational, and inspirational concert program, Piano Slam.

The Dranoff is one of the few world-class performing arts organizations headquartered in Miami-Dade County, whose activities span the globe and create recognition abroad of the region's positive image and commitment to the highest standards of creativity and the arts.

Dranoff also promotes Miami's City and County as an international cultural destination. It exposes its home audiences to major international artists, thereby creating a cultural bridge to foster universal understanding and respect through music.
